THE SHOWS

easylaughs puts on two shows on a Friday night at the Crea Muziekzaal at the Crea Café in Amsterdam. A cosy, cabaret-style space seating over 100 people. Some of their formats are...

- SuperScene
Its movie time! Five directors compete to tell the ultimate story based on suggestions from the audience. Only one director will make it all the way through to complete the final SuperScene!
- The Rumble
Get ready to RUMBLE!!! The gloves come off as two teams battle it out to become ultimate champions in this comedy fight to the death.
- Unplugged
Where easylaughs drop the games and gimmicks and take suggestions to create pure scenes and stories. But, of course, the comedy remains intact.
- Powerball Xtra
The show where easylaughs students and members of the public get to easylaughs

perform with us. It's open-stage night tonight so grab a number and wait till you're called up!

- The IMPROV Apprentice
"You're FIRED!" Six budding actors compete for a place in the cast of next week's show, all watched by "The Donald" and his two assistants. The audience decides the winning teams, and for the losers that can only mean the boardroom where someone will be fired. Who will stay alive, and who will become the next IMPROV Apprentice?!
- CSI Amsterdam
Improvised crime drama. One crime, two cops, five suspects... whodunit?! You decide in this improvised murder mystery. With donuts.
- Rockumentary
Improvised documentary in which we see interviews and footage of the 4 members of the greatest band that never quite made it. We learn about their lives, their loves, their successes, their failures. As well as seeing rare recordings of some of their best-known songs.

easylaughs also features guest performers from improv groups from all over the world.

TEACHING, COACHING AND TEAMBUILDING

easylaughs teaches a range of courses in comedy improvisation and related subjects. We currently give four levels of improvisational comedy classes, the fourth involving more specialised classes such as Acting for Improv and Intensive Performance. We also offer stand-up comedy courses. Courses typically run for 8 weeks.

Every Sunday from 12-2, easylaughs offers a walk-in improv workshop for all levels of experience, including none. Given each week by a different cast member and concentrating on a different aspect of improv performance, the workshops are a perfect way for experienced improvisers to keep it up and newcomers to see how it works for them before committing to a full course.

HISTORY

easylaughs formed in the spring of 2005 from the highly successful group, Problem Solved which formed out of the keen followers of an improv course in 2000. Joined by other performers trained in other parts of the world, they started performing at the Cameleon Theater in Amsterdam. The show became regular and then more frequent until they established a regular show once a month at the Cameleon. Here they also taught courses and ran weekly open workshops.

The easylaughs group formed to make the shows weekly and this needed a change of venue, so they moved to the old Crea. When the Crea moved in 2012, easylaughs moved with them. Now they perform two shows every Friday night at the Crea, as well as continuing to run courses and workshops.
